The Rawls Ladies Golf Association closed out its year Saturday with a 4-lady scramble that was won by its tournament director and her team.

The Up in the Cup event sported 21 teams that broke evenly into 3 flights.

Tournament director Christine Newman and her team, Lauren Hughs, Barbara Hardin and Erma Scott, combined their talents for an 11-under par 61.

Second in that flight were Linda Goldsberry, Nola Powal, Sandi Townsend and Julie Smith with a 62. Winning third on a coin flip were Kelly Ward, Ann Stone, Lena Wood and Carol Boothe with a 63.

Winners of the second flight and third flights are pictured and identified below.

Runners up in the second were Diane Qubty, Beverly Anderson, Jennifer Hornak and Mary Zias with a 69. And third with the same score were Barbara Shideler, Cathi Way, Cindy Nusbaum and Becky Robertson.

In the third flight, second place went to Judy Jones, Shirley Breeden, Anne Hall and Nathaleen Cobb with a 74. They won a coin flip over Sandra Mauldin, Sandra Rushing, Lanette Cypert and Connie Lawrence. They also shot 74.
